

Song:

Artist:

Key/BPM:

A guitar chord diagram (four columns of six squares) above a five-line staff with a treble clef. The staff has four empty measures.

T
A
B

Three columns of six squares each, representing TAB notation for three strings. Below it is a five-line staff with a treble clef, also containing four empty measures.

5

A guitar chord diagram (four columns of six squares) above a five-line staff with a treble clef. The staff has four empty measures.

5

Three columns of six squares each, representing TAB notation for three strings. Below it is a five-line staff with a treble clef, also containing four empty measures.

9

A guitar chord diagram (four columns of six squares) above a five-line staff with a treble clef. The staff has four empty measures.

9

Three columns of six squares each, representing TAB notation for three strings. Below it is a five-line staff with a treble clef, also containing four empty measures.